What an amazing opportunity to live in the beautiful Stonegate subdivision of Parker!

This home is located nestled at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac. You will immediately be greeted by a beautiful pink Cherry Blossom tree that reaches full bloom during the Spring Season.

As you walk through the front door you will immediately be greeted by a great flex space with a bay window. This is cozy little nook inside the home that could be a quiet little reading area or a formal living room with a double-sided fireplace. The Bay window makes decorating for the Holidays that much more fun.

From there you continue on into the main family room and kitchen. Bright white cabinets will keep it light and charming. You will find the powder
